

MONARCH BEACH GOLF LINKS

Anthony Lanza, PGA Head Golf Professional

Anthony Lanza, a Southern California native; started his career in golf with his first job during high school working at South Hills Country Club in South Hills, CA. Anthony never looked back and fully committed himself to the game that he has passionately turned into a lifestyle.

Anthony has been a class "A" PGA member since 2013, with nearly 20 years of background and experience working, playing, and learning from some of the top Master Professionals in the PGA. He has been teaching individuals, groups, youth and senior golfers of all skill levels his entire career. Through participating in multiple teaching summit's and instructional workshops, Anthony has developed many different types of creative programs for all golfers emphasizing the fundamentals of the golf swing along with proper short game technique, while teaching good practice habits.

Currently, Anthony is the Head Golf Professional & Event Manager at Monarch Beach Golf Links in Dana Point, CA which is the perfect place for learning the game of golf through professional instruction. Anthony offers his time most days of the week and can typically accommodate a time that fits best with your schedule.
